Baptist Church Ordination Services Held

The First Baptist Church of Lomita observed a special Ordination Service last Sunday evening for Peter McLeod, Associate Pastor and Youth Director. A capacity crowd attended the service and heard the Assoc. Supt. of Missions, Edward-Harless, of the Los Angeles Southern Baptist Association, direct the questions to the candidate. Words of welcome were presented by W. L. Braughton, and Robert Griggs Sr., lead in the Ordination prayer. The pastor, J. W. Hardin, served as Moderator, and the Ordination certificate was presented was presented by Hugh Dooley.

Dr. L. R. Simmons, President of California Baptist College, Riverside, delivered the Ordination Message. Other members of the ordaining Council, included Carol Davis, Gilbert Patterson, Daniel Eck, and Charles Holder. Peter McLeod is a native son of Scotland who came to America four years ago to study for the ministry. Although he is only twenty-one years of age, he has demonstrated such unusual talent and ability that the First Baptist Church of Lomita called for his ordination prior to his graduation this spring.

The First Baptist Church of Lomita served as host to the other churches of the Los Angeles Association yesterday in a Vacation Bible School Clinic. This coming Saturday the men of the Brotherhood will assemble to remove the last frame building to make way for a new two-story educational building.
